

SUGGESTED COURSE SCHEDULE*

Heritage Preservation Historic Preservation Track

A Total of 42 Credit Hours is required for Graduation

FALL START

Fall-1st semester

Introduction to Historic Preservation
Preservation Law
Historic Resource Evaluation

Spring -2nd semester

American Architectural History
American Built Environment
Preservation Planning

Summer-3rd semester

Study Abroad
Internship
History of Interior Design

Fall 4th Semester

Conservation of Historic Building Materials
Historic Landscapes and Gardens
Folklore

Spring 5th Semester

Case Studies in Historic Preservation
US Cities
Elective

SPRING START

Spring-1st semester

American Architectural History
American Built Environment
Preservation Planning

Summer- 2nd semester

Study Abroad
History of Interior Design

Fall-3rd semester

Introduction to Historic Preservation
Preservation Law
Historic Resource Evaluation

Spring-4th semester

Case Studies in Historic Preservation
US Cities
Folklore

Summer- 5th semester

Internship

Fall- 6th semester

Conservation of Historic Building Materials
Elective
Historic Landscapes and Gardens

*This is not a dictation on when certain courses need to be taken, but rather a suggestion for students who plan to be enrolled full time