

SUGGESTED COURSE SCHEDULE*

Heritage Preservation Public History Track

A Total of 42 Credit Hours is required for Graduation

FALL START

Fall-1st semester

Issues and Interpretation in Public History
Material Culture
Issues and Interpretation in American
History

Spring -2nd semester

Museum Studies
History of Georgia (or Southern)
Introduction to Historical Methods and
Theory

Summer-3rd semester

Study Abroad
Internship
Elective

Fall 4th Semester

Administration and Use of Historical Archives
Oral History
Exhibit Planning and Production

Spring 5th Semester

Directed Study in Public History
Case Studies in Historic Preservation

SPRING START

Spring-1st semester

Issues and Interpretation in American History
Museum Studies
History of Georgia (or Southern)

Summer- 2nd semester

Study Abroad
Elective
History of Georgia (or Southern)

Fall-3rd semester

Issues and Interpretation in Public History
Material Culture
Introduction to Historical Methods and
Theory

Spring-4th semester

Directed Study in Public History
US Cities
Case Studies in Historic Preservation

Summer- 5th semester

Internship
Elective

*This is not a dictation on when certain courses need to be taken, but rather a suggestion for students who plan to be enrolled full time