

Suggested Course Schedule

Updated March 2019

Heritage Preservation Historic Preservation Track

A total of 42 credit hours is required for graduation

FALL START

Fall-1st Semester

Introduction to Historic Preservation
American Architectural History
Investigating and Documenting Historic Structures

Spring-2nd Semester

Historic Resource Evaluation
U.S. Cities
Conservation of Historic Building Materials

Summer-3rd Semester

Study Abroad
Internship
Elective

Fall-4th Semester

Preservation Economics
Preservation Planning
Introduction to Digital History (GIS)

Spring-5th Semester

Case Studies in Historic Preservation
Heritage Tourism
Historic Landscapes and Gardens

SPRING START

Spring-1st Semester

Historic Resource Evaluation
U.S. Cities
Conservation of Historic Building Materials

Summer-2nd Semester

Study Abroad
Elective

Fall-3rd Semester

Introduction to Historic Preservation
American Architectural History
Investigating and Documenting Historic Structures

Spring-4th Semester

Case Studies in Historic Preservation
Heritage Tourism
Historic Landscapes and Gardens

Summer-5th Semester

Internship

Fall-6th Semester

Preservation Economics
Preservation Planning
Introduction to Digital History (GIS)