

SAMPLE COURSE SCHEDULE*

Heritage Preservation Public History Track

A Total of 42 Credit Hours is required for Graduation

FALL START

Fall-1st semester

Issues and Interpretation in Public History
Administration and Use of Historical Archives
Introduction to Historic Preservation
Oral History

Spring -2nd semester

Museum Studies
Introduction to Historical Methods and
Theory
Material Culture
Digital History
Heritage Tourism

Summer-3rd semester

Internship
Issues and Interpretation in American History
History of Georgia
Study Abroad
Elective

Fall 4th Semester

Exhibit Planning and Production
Oral History
Administration and Use of Historical Archives
Introduction to Historic Preservation
Elective

Spring 5th Semester

Directed Study in Public History
Digital History
Public History Education Planning
and Practice
Material Culture
Heritage Tourism

SPRING START

Spring-1st semester

Museum Studies
Public History Education Planning and Practice
Material Culture
Heritage Tourism
US Cities

Summer- 2nd semester

Internship
History of Georgia
Issues and Interpretation in American History
Study Abroad
Elective

Fall-3rd semester

Issues and Interpretation in Public History
Exhibit Planning and Production
Oral History
Administration and Use of Historical Archives

Spring-4th semester

Directed Study in Public History
Digital History
Introduction to Historical Methods and
Theory
Public History Education Planning and Practice
Heritage Tourism
Material Culture

Summer- 5th semester

Internship
History of Georgia
Issues and Interpretation in American History
Study Abroad
Elective

*This is suggested course schedule only, for students who are enrolled full time. Each list of courses offers a sense of options that normally happen in fall or spring semesters.